International Cargo & Logistics Conference 2011 Sustaining Growth & Development Towards An Excelling Economy

EMP Asia will be organising the International Cargo & Logistics Conference 2011 (ICLC 2011) at Sheraton Imperial Hotel in Kuala Lumpur - Malaysia on 22nd, 23rd and 24th March 2011. The focus of the event will be on sustaining growth and development towards an excelling economy. The cargo and logistics industry has seen a transformational year as the global economy reached a turning point en route for recovery. Over the past year in 2010, the demand for container capacity and services has seen a surge in the airline, shipping and land transport sectors, whereby the gradual increase of international trade has spur the cargo industry back on track. Industry experts are optimistic about the economy's future outlook and are forecasting a stable revival towards an excelling economy. It is crucial for companies to thrive through the initial stage of economic recovery and sustain the momentum in order to succeed. The ICLC 2011 event comprise of a 2-Day Conference and 1-Day Masterclass whereby 3 different workshops covering topics from the airline, shipping and logistic sector will be runned concurrently on the same day. An exhibition will also be held simultaneously on 2 Days of the conference event. This event provides participants with valuable insights from experts across various logistic industries. Learn from their experience and share opinions on how to overcome challenges of the current economic recession. Gather practical information and skills to lead your organisation towards a better future in the cargo and logistics industry.
